Pursuant to the Foreign Agents Registration Act of 1938, as amended

INSTRUCTIONS. File this amendment form for any changes to a registration. Compliance is accomplished by filing an electronic amendment to registration statement and uploading any supporting documents at <http://www.fara.gov>.

Privacy Act Statement. The filing of this document is required for the Foreign Agents Registration Act of 1938, as amended, 22 U.S.C. § 611 et seq., for the purposes of registration under the Act and public disclosure. Provision of the information requested is mandatory, and failure to provide the information is subject to the penalty and enforcement provisions established in Section 8 of the Act. Every registration statement, short form registration statement, supplemental statement, exhibit, amendment, copy of informational materials or other document or information filed with the Attorney General under this Act is a public record open to public examination, inspection and copying during the posted business hours of the Registration Unit in Washington, DC. Statements are also available online at the Registration Unit's webpage: <http://www.fara.gov>. One copy of every such document, other than informational materials, is automatically provided to the Secretary of State pursuant to Section 6(b) of the Act, and copies of any and all documents are routinely made available to other agencies, departments and Congress pursuant to Section 6(c) of the Act. The Attorney General also transmits a semi-annual report to Congress on the administration of the Act which lists the names of all agents registered under the Act and the foreign principals they represent. This report is available to the public in print and online at: <http://www.fara.gov>.

Public Reporting Burden. Public reporting burden for this collection of information is estimated to average 1.5 hours per response, including the time for reviewing instructions, searching existing data sources, gathering and maintaining the data needed, and completing and reviewing the collection of information. Send comments regarding this burden estimate or any other aspect of this collection of information, including suggestions for reducing this burden to Chief, Registration Unit, Counterespionage Section, National Security Division, U.S. Department of Justice, Washington, DC 20530; and to the Office of Information and Regulatory Affairs, Office of Management and Budget, Washington, DC 20503.

Ambassador Caroline Beresford
Deputy Head of Mission
Embassy of New Zealand
37 Observatory Circle, NW
Washington, D.C. 20008

January 11, 2017

Madame Ambassador:

SPG, LLC is delighted to confirm that we are representing the New Zealand Embassy in the United States to provide advisory and counsel in promoting New Zealand gaining access to the United States Treaty Trader (E-1) and Treaty Investor (E-2) visa program. We are excited to help facilitate interactions with the U.S Congress and incoming administration in order to ensure increased investment and trade between our two nations.

In this matter, the Embassy solely is our client, not any other New Zealand government agency or affiliated entities. Should we engage on other matters, the terms outlined herein will apply unless agreed to otherwise and stipulated in writing.

Executive Chairman Robert Stryk, will run our engagement operations, but other SPG personnel will be also be involved as required.

As outlined in our proposal SPG will, in coordination with relevant embassy personnel, develop and execute a strategy for engagement on this issue. The terms of engagement as outlined in our contract executed on January 9, 2017 is from January 9, 2017 to March 9, 2017 with a monthly fee of $25,000 a month to be paid each month by wire transfer by the dates specified in the document. This fee covers all our services on this matter with the exception of expenses incurred at the request of the embassy in writing on its behalf should they occur.

We currently represent no other client that directly conflicts with you, nor related to U.S. visa matters. Without your prior informed consent and as long as we remain engaged, we will not undertake any client representation that is substantially related to these matters nor in conflict with the Embassy.

On matters not substantially related to our defined engagement, SPG will not be prevented from advocating positions for other clients that are not in accord with the position of the Embassy.

Subject to the relevant provisions of the District of Columbia's Rules of Professional Conduct, you consent to our representing you as clients in other matters in which they are not adverse to you, to parties who are adverse to the Embassy in matters in which we do represent you, and to our representing clients in business transactions, counseling, legislation, regulatory, or other matters in which they are adverse to the Embassy provided that any such matter has no substantial relationship to any matter in which we represent or have represented you. At the same time, SPG is sensitive to the possibility of conflicts or other problems that might arise from particular relationships. In such situations, we will consult with you as appropriate on a case-by-case basis.

SPG and its professionals who are involved in helping execute our engagement will register with the Department of Justice under the Foreign Agents Registration Act as required by U.S. law. This registration will disclose certain information concerning our engagement including this engagement letter. Additional periodic filings are also required to remain compliant that will disclose additional information.

Both you and our firm will use electronic devices and Internet services to communicate with each other and forward documents notwithstanding the risk that such communications may be intercepted by and disclosed to unauthorized parties. You agree that the benefits of using such technology outweigh the risks of unauthorized disclosure.

Subject to the provisions above relating to registration with the Department of Justice under the Foreign Agents Registration Act and the use of electronic devices and Internet services, we agree to treat as confidential and not disclose to any third party, nor use for our own benefit, any information about you or provided by you in the course of or executing our contract except: where the disclosure is authorized by you and following informed consent or necessary for the proper performance of our obligations under this contract; where the disclosure is required by law, provided that we will give you prompt notice of the required disclosure if permitted to do so; or where the information is public knowledge.

If this letter fails to accurately express our mutual understanding or if you have any questions, please let me know. If acceptable, please sign and return a copy of this letter for our records.

Thank you for the honor of serving you and the people of New Zealand.
