On October 3, 2020, the scene in Bologna was pretty much the same—bar the myriad of smartphones snapping photos—as was the train. Sixty-one years after that initial ride, the Ariecchino was back on the tracks again, relaunched as the first vintage luxury train in Italy that is an experience in and of itself." "Slow tourism" is experiencing a revival in modern-day Italy, as demonstrated by the return of the Ariecchino—complete with retro uniforms, ceramic espresso cups and a newly refurbished interior!
