Monday, March 28	12:00:00 PM	Posted	SOCIAL	FEED	#OTD in 1483, Raphael, formally known as Raffaello Sanzio, was born in Urbino, #Italy. The masterful Italian painter and architect was heavily influenced by his instructor and mentor Pietro Perugino. Perugino's painting "Giving of the Keys to St. Peter" (1481-82) inspired Raphael's first major work, "The Marriage of the Virgin" (1504). Raphael would go on to create multiple masterpieces throughout his short 37 years of life. Some of his art is now located in the U.S.! The @ngadc is home to several of Raphael's artworks—including the pieces pictured above, "The Small Cowper Madonna," "Saint George and the Dragon" and "The Alba Madonna!"
