Check Appropriate Box:

- 4. The agreement between the registrant and the above-named foreign principal is a formal written contract. If this box is checked, attach a copy of the contract to this exhibit.
- 5. There is no formal written contract between the registrant and the foreign principal. The agreement with the above-named foreign principal has resulted from an exchange of correspondence. If this box is checked, attach a copy of all pertinent correspondence, including a copy of any initial proposal which has been adopted by reference in such correspondence.
- 6. The agreement or understanding between the registrant and the foreign principal is the result of neither a formal written contract nor an exchange of correspondence between the parties. If this box is checked, give a complete description below of the terms and conditions of the oral agreement or understanding, its duration, the fees and expenses, if any; to be received.
- 7. Describe fully the nature and method of performance of the above indicated agreement or understanding.

The China Rilin Industrial Group ("CRIG") engages the China / US Club, LLC ("Club") on a project-by-project basis to provide business-to-business consulting services. Some ancillary communications made in the course of providing these services may fall within the Act's jurisdiction. However, the registrant is retained principally to provide services to CRIG that are private and nonpolitical activities in furtherance of the bona fide trade or commerce of CRIG. The Club provides these services, as assigned, and anticipates a long-term duration of this business relationship. Fees, business expenses, and payment schedules vary by project.

8. Describe fully the activities the registrant engages in or proposes to engage in on behalf of the above foreign principal.

The US Club, LLC ("Club") anticipates engaging in a minimal amount of political activities, specifically, communicating with Members of Congress, congressional staff, and United States government officials regarding the China FFI Industrial Group's ("CRIG") purchase of commodities from suppliers in the United States and related matters. These communications likely will occur on multiple dates over a long period of time. They may, potentially, include discussion of the foreign or domestic policy of the United States. The Club's relationship with CRIG originated as, and overwhelmingly is, a provider of business-to-business consulting services relating to CRIG's private and nonpolitical activities in furtherance of bona fide trade or commerce. The Club is registering under the Act from an abundance of caution to disclose ancillary activity that may fall within the Act's jurisdiction.

9. Will the activities on behalf of the above foreign principal include political activities as defined in Section 1(o) of the Act and in the footnote below? Yes No

If yes, describe all such political activities indicating, among other things, the relations, interests or policies to be influenced together with the means to be employed to achieve this purpose.

Although the overwhelming proportion of the services China / US Club, LLC ("Club") anticipates providing to China FFI Industrial Group ("CRIG") are business-to-business consulting services, and exempt from the Act as private and nonpolitical activities in furtherance of CRIG's bona fide trade or commerce activities, the Club anticipates engaging in a proportionally small amount of political activity. Specifically, Mr. Venners, as Manager of the Club, anticipates direct communication with members of Congress, congressional staff, and U.S. government officials regarding CRIG's purchase of agricultural commodities from United States suppliers, and related matters. The Club also has subcontracted The Fogich Communications Group to engage in primarily exempt commercial communications and, potentially, FARA-regulated political activity or public relations counsel and/or publicity agent services. The above-referenced United States nationals are registering (separately) from an abundance of caution to disclose the proportionally small amount of political activities conducted for CRIG, consistent with the Act's requirements.
