Jack Allen Abramoff Registration Statement
ATTACHMENT TO EXHIBIT B (Form NSD-4)

8. Describe fully the activities the registrant engages in or proposes to engage in on behalf of the above foreign principal.

During October, 2016 to December, 2016, Mr. Abramoff received calls from Mr. Costel's staff while Mr. Costel was attempting to obtain a contract to consult with the Republic of Congo. Mr. Costel wished to further the Congo's agenda which included: i) the fight against Boko Haram; ii) improving Congo's image abroad and in the U.S.; iii) stemming illegal African immigration to the U.S; iv) facilitation of bilateral trade agreements; and v) the conversion of Congo's defense platform from France to the U.S. Mr. Costel's representative offered to engage Mr. Abramoff in these endeavors, in the event Mr. Costel was engaged by the Republic of Congo. Although Mr. Abramoff did not believe he was in a position to assist with this effort at that time, Mr. Abramoff was contacted by Mr. Costel's office in late December and was advised that the President of the Republic of Congo, Sassou N'Guesso, was en route to Palm Beach, Florida in the hopes of meeting with President-Elect Trump.

Mr. Abramoff flew to Palm Beach on his own initiative, and without any compensation, to try and facilitate a meeting between President Sassou and President-Elect Trump to advance the cause of fighting Boko Haram and the other matters listed above. While in Palm Beach, Mr. Abramoff made telephone calls to Representative Dana Rohrabacher to see if he could assist with setting up a meeting with President-Elect Trump since Rep. Rohrabacher has been a leader in Congress opposing radical Islam. Rep. Rohrabacher is the only government official Mr. Abramoff spoke to in this regard. Mr. Abramoff also drafted a proposed letter for Rep. Rohrabacher to send to President Sassou, indicating that Rep. Rohrabacher was attempting to set up a meeting for him with President-Elect Trump. When a meeting proved impossible to obtain, Mr. Abramoff asked

Rep. Rohrbacher to try and set up a call between President-Elect Trump and President Sassou to maintain the Congolese interest in working with the new Administration on the matters above. When that, too, was unsuccessful, Rep. Rohrbacher offered to call President Sassou directly to encourage his continued participation in these goals. Mr. Abramoff obtained a telephone number from Mr. Costel and provided it to Rep. Rohrbacher. It is Mr. Abramoff's understanding that Rep. Rohrbacher indicated to President Sassou that he would visit the Congo with a CODEL in the near future. It was Mr. Abramoff's further understanding that President Sassou indicated a strong interest in working with the United States to help defeat Boko Haram.

Subsequent to this call, Rep. Rohrbacher called Mr. Abramoff to inform him that he would like to travel, with a CODEL, to Brazzaville, Congo as soon as possible, to keep his commitment.

The aforementioned CODEL did ultimately occur and included a stopover in Brazzaville, Congo. During that stopover, Rep. Rohrbacher had a meeting with President Sassou. Although Mr. Abramoff was in Brazzaville at the time, he did not participate in the meeting. It is Mr. Abramoff's understanding that nothing of substance was ultimately agreed upon during the meeting and no follow-on meetings or discussions were ever scheduled.

Mr. Abramoff was not compensated for any of the above-described activities. To his knowledge, Mr. Costel was never engaged by the Republic of Congo. Furthermore, Mr. Costel never came to any agreement with Mr. Abramoff of any kind. No future work for or on behalf of Mr. Costel or the Republic of Congo is contemplated.
