The Member has made a capital contribution to the Company ("Capital Contribution") and shall have a 100% percent interest in the Company. Additional Capital Contributions to the Company may be made from time to time in such amounts as determined by the Member in its sole discretion; provided, however, that the Member is not and shall not be obligated to make any additional contributions to the Company.

Article III.

Profits and Losses; Distributions

Section 3.01 Accounting; Determination of Profits and Losses. The books of the Company shall be kept on such basis as determined by the Member in accordance with applicable law. The terms "Profits" and "Losses" as used in this Declaration shall mean the Company's "book" profits or losses (as the case may be), as determined in accordance with the provisions and principles of §§704(b) and 704(c) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended (the "Code"), and the Treasury regulations promulgated thereunder (the "Regulations").

Section 3.02 Allocation of Profits and Losses. The Profits and Losses of the Company, and each item of income, gain, deduction or loss included therein, shall be allocated to and borne by the Member.

Section 3.03 Tax Reporting. It is the intention of the Member that the Company be disregarded for federal tax purposes (so long as the Company has only one member), and accordingly all items of income, gain, loss, expense, deduction, and credit shall, for federal tax purposes, be reported directly by the Member.

Section 3.04 Member's Account. A capital account shall be maintained for the Member in accordance with the Regulations.

Section 3.05 Distributions.

(A) From time to time, the Member may make a determination of the amount of Surplus Cash, if any. "Surplus Cash" shall be deemed to mean the excess of the cash (or equivalents thereof) held by the Company over the amounts required to be retained pursuant to any agreement or contract to which the Company may be a party plus the amount necessary to meet the reasonably foreseeable working capital needs of the Company.

(B) The amount of Surplus Cash, as so determined, may be distributed to the Member, at such times as the Member may determine, after deducting any amount owed by the Member to the Company.

(C) Except as expressly provided in Section 7.02 in connection with the termination and winding up of the Company, or upon the approval of the Member, the Company shall not be obligated to repurchase the Member's Interest (as defined in Section 6.01), nor shall the Member be entitled to receive any other payment or distribution in connection with its withdrawal from the Company.

Article IV. Management

Section 4.01 Management by Manager. Except for situations in which the approval of the Member is required by this Agreement or by nonwaivable provisions of applicable law, all of the powers and authority of the Company shall be exercised by or under the direction of one (1) manager (the "Manager") who need not be a member of the Company. The number of Managers may be changed only by amendment of this Agreement in accordance with Section 8.04. The Manager may resign at any time. The Manager may be removed at any time, with or without cause, by the affirmative vote of the Member, subject to the contract rights, if any, of the Manager. Any vacancy, however created or arising, shall be filled by the affirmative vote of the Member. The Manager shall not, in his capacity as a Manager, in the name of or on behalf of the Company, sign or execute any contract, instrument or document, perform any other act, engage in any transaction, commit or bind the Company to any act, contract, instrument or document, or incur any debt, except as expressly permitted by this Agreement or with the written concurrence of the Member. The initial Manager of the Company shall be the Member.

Section 4.02 Actions of the Manager or the Member Without a Meeting. Any action required or permitted to be taken at a meeting of the Manager or the Member under this Agreement or the Delaware Act may be taken without a meeting if the Manager or the Member, as the case may be, consents thereto in writing and such written consent is filed with the minutes of the proceedings of the Company.

Section 4.03 Tax Matters. If the company is required to file any income tax return, form, statement, or other document separate from the Member, the Member shall prepare and file such return, form, statement, or other document as appropriate under applicable law. The Member shall act as the "tax matters member" for the Company, as that term is defined in, and for all purposes of, Code §6231(a)(7).

Section 4.04 Officers. The Company may have such officer or officers as the Manager may from time to time appoint, including, without limitation, a President, one or more Vice Presidents, a Treasurer and a Secretary. Each officer shall hold office at the pleasure of the Manager and may be removed at any time from any office or offices held by him, with or without cause, by and in the discretion of the Manager, subject to the contract rights, if any, of such person. All officers shall possess and exercise the duties and authority of their respective offices subject to the authority and direction of the Manager. All officers shall have such duties and authority with respect to the affairs of the Company as are customarily possessed by such officers of a Delaware corporation, except as such duties or authority may be limited or expanded by action of the Manager from time to time.

Section 4.05 Actions Requiring the Approval of the Member. Notwithstanding anything to the contrary contained in this Agreement and except as set forth in Article VI and Article VII, any action with respect to the following matters shall require approval by the Member:

- (A) the increase or decrease in the number of Managers;
- (B) the amendment of this Agreement; and
- (C) any merger or consolidation of the Company with any other entity.

Article V.

Limitation of Liability; Indemnification

Section 5.01 Proof of Failure to Satisfy Standard of Conduct. Neither the Member, the Manager nor any officer of the Company shall be deemed to have violated any standard of conduct under this Article V unless such violation is proved, by clear and convincing evidence, in an action brought against such person. The termination of any action, suit or proceeding by judgment, order, settlement or upon a plea of nolo contendere or its equivalent shall not of itself constitute proof or create a presumption that the appropriate standard of conduct has been violated.

Section 5.02 Liability to the Company. Neither the Member, the Manager nor any officer shall be liable to the Company in damages for any action that the Member, the Manager or such officer takes or fails to take in such capacity, unless it is proved, by clear and convincing evidence, in a court of competent jurisdiction that such action or failure to act was undertaken with deliberate intent to cause injury to the Company or with reckless disregard for the best interests of the Company.

Section 5.03 Liability to Others. The obligations and liabilities of the Company are solely the obligations and liabilities of the Company, and neither the Member, the Manager nor any officer shall be liable therefor solely by reason of being a Member, Manager or an officer. No failure of the Company to observe any formality or requirement relating to the exercise of its powers or the management of its business or affairs under this Declaration shall be grounds for imposing liability on the Member, the Manager or any officer for any liability of the Company to any third party.

Section 5.04 Indemnification. The Company shall indemnify the Member, the Manager and any officer to the fullest extent provided by, or permissible under the Delaware Act. The Company is hereby authorized to take any and all further action to effectuate any indemnification of the Member, the Manager or any officer which any Delaware limited liability company may have power to take with respect to the indemnification of its members, managers or officers, by any vote of the members, by any agreement, or otherwise. This Section shall be interpreted in all respects to expand such power to indemnify to the maximum extent permissible to any Delaware limited liability company with regard to the particular facts of each case, and not in any way to limit any statutory or other power to indemnify, or any right of any individual to indemnification. Expenses, including attorneys' fees, incurred by the Member, the Manager or any officer in defending any proceeding shall be paid by the Company, in advance of the final disposition of such proceeding, upon receipt of an undertaking by or on behalf of the Member, the Manager or any officer, as the case may be, to repay such amount, if it shall ultimately be determined that it is not entitled to be indemnified by the Company as authorized in this Section 5.04. No repeal, amendment or modification of this Section 5.04 shall affect any rights or obligations then existing hereunder with respect to any state of facts then or theretofore existing or any action, suit or proceeding theretofore or thereafter brought or threatened based in whole or in part upon any such state of facts. This Section 5.04 is intended for the benefit of the Company, the Member, the Manager and any officer.

Section 5.05 Indemnification of Other Persons. Officers, employees and agents of the Company shall be indemnified by the Company only if and to the extent, approved by the Member or specifically required by applicable law.

Section 5.06 Survival. The provisions of this Article V shall survive any termination of this Declaration.

Article VI.

Transfers of Interests

Section 6.01 Right to Transfer. The Member shall be entitled, in its sole and absolute discretion at any time and from time to time, to sell, mortgage, hypothecate, transfer, pledge, assign, donate, create a security interest in or lien on, encumber, give, place in trust (voting or other) or otherwise dispose of all or any portion of its limited liability company interest in the Company, including the Member's (A) interest in the Profits, Losses, allocations of other items and distributions from the Company, (B) rights with respect to the management and administration of the Company, (C) access to or rights to demand or require any information or account of the Company or its affairs, and (D) rights to inspect the books and records of the Company (collectively, the "Member's Interest").

Section 6.02 Status of Third Party Transferee. No transferee, including any transferee by operation of law or court order, of all or any portion of the Member's Interest shall, without the prior written consent of the Member, which consent may be withheld by the Member in its sole and absolute discretion, acquire the status of a substituted or additional member of the Company under the Delaware Act or under this Declaration, but shall have solely the status, rights and privileges of an assignee. In the event a substitute or additional member is admitted to the Company in accordance with this Section 6.02, such substitute or additional member shall be responsible for the payment of all fees and expenses associated with the transfer and such substitution or admission as the Member may require.

Article VII.

Termination, Liquidation and Winding Up

Section 7.01 Termination and Winding Up. The Company shall terminate upon the election of the Member in writing to terminate the Company. At such time, the Company shall cease to carry on its business, except insofar as may be necessary for the winding up of its affairs, but its separate existence shall continue until a Certificate of Cancellation has been filed with the Secretary of State of Delaware or until a decree dissolving the Company has been entered by a court of competent jurisdiction. The filing of a Certificate of Cancellation shall not affect the limited liability of the Member.

Section 7.02 Method of Distribution Upon Winding Up. Upon termination of the Company pursuant to Section 7.01, the assets of the Company and the proceeds of any liquidation shall be applied and distributed in the following manner and order of priority:

(A) to the payment and discharge of all of the Company's liabilities and the expenses of liquidation and dissolution;

(B) to the setting up of any reserves reasonably necessary for any contingent or unforeseen liabilities or obligations of the Company;

(C) to the payment and discharge of any loans and advances made by the Member to the Company; and

(D) to the Member.

Section 7.03 Orderly Liquidation. A reasonable time shall be allowed for the orderly liquidation of the assets of the Company and the discharge of liabilities to creditors so as to enable the Member to minimize the normal losses attendant upon a liquidation.
