Good morning Joe,

Please see the op-ed below that Ambassador Al Otaiba wrote in the Washington Post describing the efforts made against extremists in Yemen.

I would appreciate if you make sure Congressman Visdosky sees it before this afternoon's meeting.

Kind Regards,
Hagir

In the Washington Post, UAE Ambassador to the US Yousef Al Otaiba writes about the progress being made in Yemen against Al Qaeda in the Arabian Peninsula and the Iranian regime-backed Houthi militia. He affirms the UAE's strong support for the efforts of UN Special Envoy Martin Griffiths to end the war in Yemen and achieve a lasting solution.

Ambassador Al Otaiba underscores the close cooperation between the UAE and US to create a more peaceful Middle East region, and remarks that "while the UAE is a leader in the fight against extremism and aggression, others are enabling and prolonging it."
