Perfect Anna- nice work. Please go ahead and push this out and upload it to FARA site. You'll need to pdf this email and upload it and then have Anne Marie document it in the FARA document. I'll review the other one now.

Good afternoon Colleagues:

As the UAE's commitment to humanitarian efforts in Yemen remains strong, I would like to share the following update. According to the United Nations High Commissioner for Refugees, the UAE's grant to support the UN's humanitarian response in Yemen has eased the suffering of over 20,000 Yemeni families. The UAE is dedicated to continuing this vital work of delivering humanitarian aid to the people of Yemen.

As always, please reach out if you have questions or would like to further discuss.

UNHCR: 20,000 families benefit from Emirati grant to support UN plan in Yemen

8/1/2018

The UAE grant to support the 'Yemen: Humanitarian Response Plan 2018' of the UN has benefitted over 20,000 Yemeni families, the United Nations High Commissioner for Refugees, UNHCR, has said.

The remarks came during a meeting between Saeed Al Kaabi, UAE Humanitarian Operations Director for Yemen, Ayman Gharaibeh, UNHCR's Representative to Yemen, and Jacqueline Parlevliet, Head of UNHCR Sub Office in Yemen, who praised the UAE's humanitarian initiatives and efforts in the country, through its humanitarian arm, the Emirates Red Crescent, ERC, which aim to provide food, shelter, water, electricity and healthcare to those affected, especially underprivileged Yemeni families.

Al Kaabi said that the UAE will help ease the burdens of Yemeni people, while pointing out that the coming period will witness more humanitarian programmes and development and services projects in the country's liberated areas.

He added that the UAE's wise leadership has prioritised its efforts to alleviate the suffering of Yemenis and improve their humanitarian conditions, and has directed the ERC to continue providing urgent humanitarian and development aid, which accompanied the liberation of Red Sea Coast, to ensure the stability of local residents.

During the meeting, the participants discussed their efforts to provide humanitarian aid to Yemeni citizens in the country's liberated cities, as well as the UAE's support for the UN programmes in Yemen.
