

Ana Brnabić, Prime Minister of Serbia, on how technology can drive economic growth

07 Feb 2022

AUDIO: LISTEN TO THE ARTICLE

02:26

This is an experimental feature. Some words or names may be mispronounced. Does it sound good? Yes / No

The President of the World Economic Forum, Børge Brende, and the Prime Minister of Serbia, Ana Brnabić, sat down on 7 February 2022 to discuss the ambitions of the newly announced Centre for the Fourth Industrial Revolution Serbia and the leading role Serbia will take in

This site uses cookies to deliver website functionality and analytics. If you would like to know more about the types of cookies we serve and how to change your cookie settings, please read our Cookie Notice. By clicking the "I accept" button, you consent to the use of these cookies.

I accept

Chaired by:

Børge Brende, President, World Economic Forum

Moderated by:

Mirek Dusek, Head of Europe, Eurasia and the Middle East, Member of the Executive Committee

Panellist:

Ana Brnabić, Prime Minister of Serbia

Kancelarija za ITE
@kancelarijaITE

Управо је у Женеви потписан Споразум о успостављању Центра Светског економског форума @wef за четврту индустријску револуцију у Србији #C4IR. Биће први у региону Западног Балкана и радиће у оквиру #КанцеларијаИТЕ @SerbianGov @SerbianPM @anabrnic bit.ly/3ourQXm

9:30 AM · Feb 7, 2022

Read the full conversation on Twitter

This site uses cookies to deliver website functionality and analytics. If you would like to know more about the types of cookies we serve and how to change your cookie settings, please read our Cookie Notice. By clicking the "I accept" button, you consent to the use of these cookies.

I accept

This material is distributed by Yorktown Solutions, LLC on behalf of the Chamber of Commerce and Industry of Serbia.

Additional information is available at the Department of Justice, Washington, D.C.