"We are very pleased with the future collaboration with JetBlue and believe that this significantly enhances the travel possibilities between the US and destinations within the Air Serbia network, especially those in the broader Balkan region," said Air Serbia CEO Jiri Marek.

"We continuously look to expand our partnerships to offer more options to our customers. Air Serbia has been a successful interline partner since 2016 and we see great potential with this new codeshare. We welcome customers from Air Serbia aboard our flights, so they can experience our low fares and great service," said JetBlue CEO Robin Hayes.
