Short Form Registration Statement

Pursuant to the Foreign Agents Registration Act of 1938, as amended

INSTRUCTIONS. Each partner, officer, director, associate, employee, and agent of a registrant is required to file a short form registration statement unless he engages in no activities in furtherance of the interests of the registrant's foreign principal or unless the services he renders to the registrant are in a secretarial, clerical, or in a related or similar capacity. Compliance is accomplished by filing an electronic short form registration statement at <https://www.fara.gov>.

Privacy Act Statement. The filing of this document is required for the Foreign Agents Registration Act of 1938, as amended, 22 U.S.C. § 611 et seq., for the purposes of registration under the Act and public disclosure. Provision of the information requested is mandatory, and failure to provide the information is subject to the penalty and enforcement provisions established in Section 8 of the Act. Every registration statement, short form registration statement, supplemental statement, exhibit, amendment, copy of informational materials or other document or information filed with the Attorney General under this Act is a public record open to public examination, inspection and copying during the posted business hours of the FARA Unit in Washington, DC. Statements are also available online at the FARA Unit's webpage: <https://www.fara.gov>. One copy of every such document, other than informational materials, is automatically provided to the Secretary of State pursuant to Section 6(b) of the Act, and copies of any and all documents are routinely made available to other agencies, departments and Congress pursuant to Section 6(c) of the Act. The Attorney General also transmits a semi-annual report to Congress on the administration of the Act which lists the names of all agents registered under the Act and the foreign principals they represent. This report is available to the public online at: <https://www.fara.gov>.

Public Reporting Burden. Public reporting burden for this collection of information is estimated to average .23 hours per response, including the time for reviewing instructions, searching existing data sources, gathering and maintaining the data needed, and completing and reviewing the collection of information. Send comments regarding this burden estimate or any other aspect of this collection of information, including suggestions for reducing this burden to Chief, FARA Unit, Counterintelligence and Export Control Section, National Security Division, U.S. Department of Justice, Washington, DC 20530; and to the Office of Information and Regulatory Affairs, Office of Management and Budget, Washington, DC 20503.

Appendix Response to Item 11

Item 11: Describe in detail all services which you will render to the foreign principal listed in Item 10 either directly, or through the primary registrant listed in Item 8.

Pursuant to the Contract, the Registrant shall provide the Customer with public affairs and information services designed to establish and maintain communication between the Customer and its member companies, on the one hand, and relevant stakeholders within the United States, on the other. In the performance of such Services, the Registrant anticipates engaging with U.S. government officials, non-governmental organizations, commercial entities, and media representatives in furtherance of the Customer's objectives.

Such activities shall include: engaging U.S. stakeholders in support of the Customer's member companies' oil and gas exploration, production, and infrastructure activities in Ukraine, including efforts to secure U.S. financing and facilitate commercial relationships with U.S. equipment manufacturers, energy companies, trade associations, and financing institutions; promoting U.S. financing facilities and U.S. liquefied natural gas exports to Ukraine; developing and maintaining the Customer's member companies' reputation in the United States, including their adherence to OECD corporate governance and anti-corruption standards; informing U.S. stakeholders of Russian attacks on Ukraine's energy infrastructure and advocating for U.S. governmental assistance in its protection; engaging Congressional committees and international financial institutions in support of the Customer's commercial and financing objectives; supporting meetings and visits by the Customer's leadership, including briefing materials and strategic messaging; arranging public events, including on the margins of major international conferences; and monitoring relevant developments, institutional positions, and media coverage.

Appendix Response to Item 12

Item 12: Do any of the above described services include political activity as defined in Section 1(o) of the Act? If yes, describe separately and in detail such political activity.
