Exhibit B to Registration Statement
Pursuant to the Foreign Agents Registration Act of 1938, as amended

INSTRUCTIONS. A registrant must furnish as an Exhibit B copies of each written agreement and the terms and conditions of each oral agreement with his foreign principal, including all modifications of such agreements, or, where no contract exists, a full statement of all the circumstances by reason of which the registrant is acting as an agent of a foreign principal. Compliance is accomplished by filing an electronic Exhibit B form at <https://www.fara.gov>.

Privacy Act Statement. The filing of this document is required for the Foreign Agents Registration Act of 1938, as amended, 22 U.S.C. § 611 et seq., for the purposes of registration under the Act and public disclosure. Provision of the information requested is mandatory, and failure to provide the information is subject to the penalty and enforcement provisions established in Section 8 of the Act. Every registration statement, short form registration statement, supplemental statement, exhibit, amendment, copy of informational materials or other document or information filed with the Attorney General under this Act is a public record open to public examination, inspection and copying during the posted business hours of the Registration Unit in Washington, DC. Statements are also available online at the Registration Unit's webpage: <https://www.fara.gov>. One copy of every such document, other than informational materials, is automatically provided to the Secretary of State pursuant to Section 6(b) of the Act, and copies of any and all documents are routinely made available to other agencies, departments and Congress pursuant to Section 6(c) of the Act. The Attorney General also transmits a semi-annual report to Congress on the administration of the Act which lists the names of all agents registered under the Act and the foreign principals they represent. This report is available to the public in print and online at: <https://www.fara.gov>.

Public Reporting Burden. Public reporting burden for this collection of information is estimated to average .33 hours per response, including the time for reviewing instructions, searching existing data sources, gathering and maintaining the data needed, and completing and reviewing the collection of information. Send comments regarding this burden estimate or any other aspect of this collection of information, including suggestions for reducing this burden to Chief, Registration Unit, Counterintelligence and Export Control Section, National Security Division, U.S. Department of Justice, Washington, DC 20530; and to the Office of Information and Regulatory Affairs, Office of Management and Budget, Washington, DC 20503.

Re: Section 232 Aluminum Tariffs

Dear Yousif:

We are pleased that The Embassy of the Kingdom of Bahrain has engaged Miller & Chevalier to provide legal advice and assistance in connection with Section 232 tariffs to be imposed on Aluminum and Steel imports into the United States. For privilege and conflicts purposes, the Kingdom of Bahrain will be our client in this matter.

The hourly billing rates for Richard Mojica, Welles Orr and me, who will be the lawyers primarily responsible for this matter, are $680, $800, and $1,095 respectively. Should we believe it would be beneficial to involve any other partners in this matter, we will consult with you. Billing rates for other lawyers in our firm range from $420 to $1245, for non-lawyer professionals and contract lawyers, from $270 to $330. These are preferred rates because you are a pre-existing client.

Although it may be extended, this engagement covers the time period of March 9, 2018 through March 31, 2018. For work done during this period, Miller & Chevalier's fees will not exceed $110,000.

Other details of this engagement are set forth in the attached Appendix, which is incorporated by reference into this engagement agreement.

We appreciate the confidence you have placed in us; we welcome your feedback at any time; and we look forward to working with you and your colleagues.

Sincerely,

Miller & Chevalier, Chartered by

Homer E. Moyer, Jr.

APPENDIX TO ENGAGEMENT LETTER

PRIVILEGED & CONFIDENTIAL

This Appendix is a part of the engagement agreement between The Embassy of the Kingdom of Bahrain and Miller & Chevalier Chartered and is incorporated in its entirety by reference as a part of the agreement letter dated March 14, 2018.

1. Client and Scope of Representation. Because the Firm is being engaged by, and will represent, only the Client and not any subsidiary or affiliated entities of the Client. Our representation of the Client does not give rise to a lawyer-client relationship between our Firm and any of the Client's subsidiaries or affiliates. Accordingly, representation of the Client in this matter will not give rise to any conflict of interest in the event other clients of the Firm are adverse to any of the Client's subsidiaries or affiliates.

We have been engaged to represent the Client in connection with Section 232 Aluminum Tariffs. Because we are not your general counsel, our acceptance of this engagement does not involve an undertaking to represent you or your interests in any other matter. We may mutually agree to limit or to extend our services to other matters or to related parties, provided such change is confirmed to us in writing. If an extension of our services occurs, the provisions of this letter will apply, unless otherwise subsequently changed in writing, to any such expanded or subsequent representation.

Our services will be performed in accordance with the District of Columbia Rules of Professional Conduct and these Rules will apply to our conduct, both during and after this engagement, including those Rules that apply to conflicts of interest. Any expressions on our part concerning the outcome of your legal matters are expressions of our best professional judgment, but are not guarantees. Such opinions are necessarily limited by our knowledge of the facts and are based on the state of the law at the time they are expressed.

In addition, the Client agrees to be candid and cooperative with us and will keep us informed, and to provide us with complete and accurate factual information, documents and other communications relevant to the subject matter of our representation or otherwise reasonably requested by us.

2. Fees and Expenses. The Client agrees to pay our statements for services and expenses as provided below.

The principal basis for computing our fees for the legal services we provide to you will be the amount of time spent on the matter by various lawyers and others, including other Firm professionals, multiplied by their individual hourly billing rates. In addition, we may also consider the novelty and difficulty of the questions involved, and the skill needed to perform the legal services properly; the time limitations imposed by you or by the circumstances; the nature and length of our professional relationship with you the Client; the experience, reputation, and ability of the lawyers performing the services and the results obtained.

On occasion we may be requested to estimate the amount of fees and costs likely to be incurred in connection with a particular matter. Whenever possible, we will furnish such an estimate based upon our professional judgment, but always with a clear understanding that it is not a maximum or fixed-fee quotation. The ultimate cost frequently is more or less than the amount estimated.

Our fees will be based on rates in effect at the time the services were rendered. The hourly rates of our lawyers and others, including other Firm professionals, are adjusted from time to time, generally at the start of each calendar year to reflect current levels of legal experience, changes in overhead costs, and other factors. We will keep records of the time we devote to your work, including conferences (both in person and over the telephone), negotiations, factual and legal research and analysis, document preparation and revision, travel on your behalf, and other related matters. We record our time in quarter-hours.

Our statements will include separate charges for disbursements made and internal charges incurred on your behalf. No separate charges are made for secretaries, overtime, local telephone, incoming and outgoing faxes or regular postage. These items are considered overhead of the Firm and are covered by our fees. We will bill internal document reproduction at the rate of $0.15 per page for black and white copies and $0.60 per page for color copies. If required in a matter, we will bill internal costs related to litigation support and the processing of electronic files at rates agreed to with each client. Payments to third party vendors for express mail, deliveries, printing, travel costs, court filings, court reporters, electronic file processing, and other similar fees are billed at our cost. With respect to electronic research, the Firm has entered into a favorable arrangement with Lexis®-Nexis®. Due to our volume of usage, we receive a discount from their regular rates for most client research. In cases where we receive such discounts, we will charge you for Lexis®-Nexis® use at a 30% discount to the regular usage charge.

Fees and expenses of any experts, consultants and local counsel retained by us with the Client's approval ordinarily will be passed on through the regular billing process unless other arrangements are agreed to between us.

Statements for services ordinarily will be sent monthly. On occasion, however, either the Client or the Firm may determine that such statements should be sent either more or less often. Please review our statements when you receive them, and direct any questions to me promptly so that questions can be quickly resolved. If you have any special policies with respect to information you want included in our statements, please advise us promptly.

Wire transfers are the preferred method of payment and can be arranged by contacting the Firm's Director of Finance. The wire instructions can also be found on the remittance page of our invoices. If you are sending a check, please include a copy of the statement with your check for proper crediting, especially if multiple matters are covered.

All statements are due and payable upon receipt. We will give the Client prompt notice if its account becomes delinquent, and you agree to bring the account or the retainer deposit current. If statements remain unpaid for more than 30 days, we reserve the right to suspend performance of our services to the Client until arrangements, satisfactory to us are made for payment of outstanding statements and future fees and expenses. In addition, if payments are not made within 30 days, the Firm reserves the right to charge interest at the rate of 18% per annum simple interest (1.5% per month), which will be due and payable with the late payment. The Firm will apply all payments to the statements that have been outstanding for the longest period of time. If the delinquency continues and the Client does not arrange satisfactory payment terms, we will withdraw from the representation and pursue collection of the account. In addition to any other rights and remedies available to the Firm, the Client agrees to reimburse the Firm for the costs of collecting the debt, including court costs, filing fees, and reasonable lawyers' fees.

3. Conflicts. As noted above, the Firm will represent only the Client and not any subsidiary or affiliated entities of the Client it is therefore our mutual understanding that our representation of the Client in this matter will not give rise to any conflict of interest in the event other clients of the Firm are or become adverse to any such subsidiary or affiliate of the Client.

The Firm represents many other companies, organizations, and individuals. It is possible that during the time we are representing the Client, some of our present or future clients will be engaged in transactions, or encounter disputes, with the Client. The Client agrees that, unless such matter is substantially related to our work for the Client, we may continue to represent, and may undertake in the future to represent, existing or new clients in any matter, including litigation, that is directly adverse to the Client, and lobbying and tax matters involving issues that might be resolved adverse to the Client's interests.

The Firm agrees not to use any proprietary or other confidential information of a non-public nature concerning the Client acquired by us as a result of our representation of the Client to its material disadvantage in connection with any litigation or other matter in which we may be opposed to the Client.

In addition, you agree that if a permitted conflicting representation does arise in the future, and the Client seeks to withdraw its consent to the conflicting representation, we may withdraw from our representation of the Client. You also agree that the Client will not assert that this representation should disqualify us or otherwise prevent us from that representation. This advance consent does not authorize our disclosure or use of any client confidences.

4. Conclusion of Representation. The Client may terminate our services and representation at any time upon written notice to the Firm. Such termination shall not, however, relieve the Client of the obligation to pay for all services already rendered, including work in progress and remaining incomplete at the time of termination, and to pay for all expenses incurred on behalf of the Client through the date of termination.

The Firm reserves the right to withdraw from our representation as required or permitted by the D.C. Rules of Professional Conduct upon written notice to the Client. In the event that we terminate the engagement, we will take such steps as are reasonably practicable to protect the Client's interests in the above matter, and the Client agrees to take all steps necessary to free us of any obligation to perform further, including the execution of any documents necessary to perfect our withdrawal. We will be entitled to be paid for all services rendered and costs or expenses incurred on behalf of the Client through the date of withdrawal. [If permission for withdrawal is required by a court or other entity, we will promptly request such permission and the Client agrees not to oppose our request.]

Unless previously terminated, our representation of the Client will terminate upon our sending you our final statement for services rendered in this matter.

Following termination, any otherwise non-public information you have supplied to us that we retain will be kept confidential in accordance with D.C. Rules of Professional Conduct. At your request, papers and property that the Client provided to us will be returned to the Client promptly upon receipt of payment of all outstanding statements. We will retain our own files pertaining to this matter. These files include, for example, Firm administrative records, time and expense reports, personnel and staffing materials, credit and accounting records, and internal lawyers' work product such as drafts, notes, and internal memoranda. We also will retain all other files pertaining to this case unless you instruct us otherwise.

The Firm currently retains client files for eight (8) years. During this period, if documents are only in electronic form, we will keep them in that form. For various reasons, including the minimization of unnecessary storage expenses, we reserve the right to convert paper documents to electronic form and keep them in that form, rather than retain paper documents. After this period the Firm generally destroys its inactive files, unless you instruct us otherwise at the time that we conclude this representation of you. If you have any instructions to us about the ultimate disposition of your files, please let us know.

5. Post-Representation Matters. After termination of this representation, changes might occur in applicable laws or regulations that could have an impact on your future rights and liabilities. Unless you specifically engage us to provide additional advice on issues arising from such changes, the Firm has no continuing obligation to advise you with respect to future legal developments.
