UDPS ELECTION CAMPAIGN CONSULTING AGREEMENT

An agreement is made this day, 23 June 2018, between

Mr. Max Karst with Celestin Kabasele

(Consultants)

and the

Congolese Electoral Campaign of Mr. Felix Tshisekedi as President of the Union for Democracy and Social Progress (UDPS)

(Candidate)

This agreement describes the terms, responsibilities, and obligations of the above named parties for the mutual goal of promoting the Candidate and his agenda in the United States and seeking support for his campaign for President in the Congolese election scheduled for December 23, 2018.

A significant factor in advocating for the Tshisekedi campaign will be in changing the less than positive image most Americans have of Africa in general and Congo in particular. Beyond raising campaign funds, the more impactful and long-range goal will be to convince US government and cultural popular 'influence makers' that a Tshisekedi government will mark a new beginning for The Democratic Republic of the Congo and bring real reform to the country. This will be key to raising investor confidence and allow development funds to flow, unlocking the tremendous potential of the DRC.

Responsibilities:

The Consultants shall, as their time permits, undertake such campaign activities as:

- Email networking with influential US business, government leaders
- Email networking with NGOs, media outlets, universities, Congo diaspora
- Raising public awareness, as able, through print, TV, social media
- Solicit financial donations directed to legitimate Candidate accounts
- Contact third-party fundraiser professionals for potential solicitations
- As able, otherwise promote the interests of the Candidate

The Consultants shall not be obliged to commit their own financial resources in any way.

Donors to fundraising campaigns want to know that their contributions are going to support the candidate and his agenda, not the fundraiser who takes a percentage of their contributions. To avoid this conflict of self-interest, Mr. Kabasele and Mr. Karst will work on a limited and voluntary basis and not receive any commission on monies raised directly from donors. Contributions and pledges will be forwarded, in whole, directly to authorized campaign officials and accounts. The Candidate's campaign shall provide confirmation of receipt of all donations and forward such to the Consultants and the donors.

Monies raised by third-party fundraisers, social media campaigns, website solicitations, and the like that might be initiated by the Consultants might be levied a 10% commission in addition to the charge by the third-party.

Mr. Karst and Mr. Kabasele will provide a biweekly report of their activities to the office of Mr. Tshisekedi.

Term:

This agreement shall be for a term of 6 months beginning July 1, 2018 and ending December 31, 2018. It may be terminated without notice and without prejudice by either party at any time. It may also be amended as warranted as campaign resources develop over time.

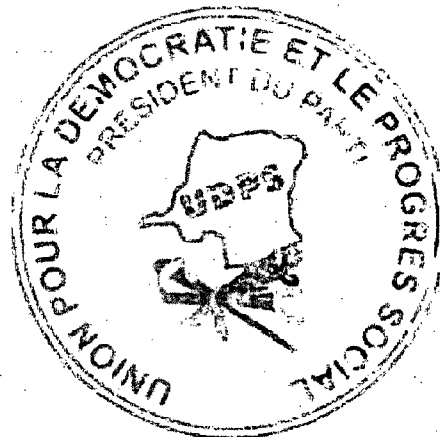

Other Conditions:

Whatever the outcome of the election in the Democratic Republic of Congo and any benefit, or lack thereof to the campaign, Mr. Tshisekedi and UDPS will keep a good, friendly, and privileged relationship with Mr. Karst and Mr. Kabasele.

Both parties pledge to work on basis of confidence and trust. If there is a misunderstanding or divergence between both parties, the issue shall be resolved in constructive friendship only, and not through litigation.
