RE: U.S. Federal Governmental Relations

Dear Ambassador Szabo:

Barnes & Thornburg LLP ("Firm") is very pleased to serve as U.S. federal government relations counsel to the Embassy of Hungary ("Hungary"). It is important from the outset of this relationship that we have a clear understanding as to the identity of the Firm's client in this engagement. The Firm's only client in this engagement is the Embassy of Hungary. This representation does not extend to any governmental entity, political party, or other persons, individuals or entities who are not specifically identified in this letter.

SCOPE OF SERVICES

The Firm is being engaged to assist Hungary with general governmental relations directed primarily at religious freedom and immigration issues. The Firm has only been engaged to assist Hungary with government relations work as indicated in this engagement letter. In the event our engagement is expanded to cover other legal services or if the scope of our government relations work is modified or expanded, those changes to our engagement must be in writing.

Although I will be the lawyer responsible for this Matter, from time to time other lawyers, legal assistants and legislative assistants at the Firm may assist me, depending upon their expertise and experience, and with the approval of Hungary.

Since the outcome of any matter is subject to uncertainties and risks, the Firm has made no promises or guarantees to Hungary concerning the outcome of any project or opportunity with federal government entities, nor can we do so. While nothing in this letter shall be construed as such a promise or guarantee, we will take all reasonable actions to achieve each task that is assigned to us and will exercise all duties and responsibilities required of attorneys in the District of Columbia. This includes promptness, diligence, due care, through preparation, confidentiality, avoiding conflicts of interest, and all other obligations imposed on attorneys by the Rules of Professional Responsibility.

The performance of services, as listed above, may give rise to a requirement that the Firm or a legal professional of the Firm register as a lobbyist or register as a foreign agent. The Firm will advise Hungary of applicable lobbying laws and the requirements imposed under the Foreign Agent Registration Act, and take reasonable care to assure proper compliance. As Hungary would expect from lawyers, the Firm has an obligation not to reveal confidential information relating to the representation of a client, including information protected by the attorney-client privilege, unless the client gives informed consent. These restrictions apply to lawyers who are providing lobbying and government relations advice to clients. However, Hungary acknowledges and provides such consent to disclose otherwise confidential information, to the extent necessary, to complete and comply with registration, disclosure, and reporting requirements imposed by lobbying laws and the Foreign Agent Registration Act.

This engagement is governed by the laws of the United States and the District of Columbia.

FEES

Barnes & Thornburg LLP will perform the services described above for a fixed fee of $50,000 (USD) to be paid in two installments of $25,000 (USD) in December, 2018 and January, 2019. This fixed fee amount is capped, and includes all expenses except for travel outside of the Washington, DC, metropolitan area. Travel outside the Washington, DC area must be pre-approved by Hungary and would be either billed at cost or directly purchased by Hungary. Firm personnel travel domestically in economy class and internationally in business class. The Firm's treatment of the payments received is governed by the standards established by the District of Columbia's Rules of Professional Conduct. B&T will issue its statements in accord with the tax exempt status of the Embassy of Hungary (note that in the District of Columbia services of law firms are not subject to sales tax).

OTHER REPRESENTATIONS

Before the Firm agrees to this representation, it is appropriate to spell out the expectations or standards that will govern conflicts of interest that arise in the course of this Engagement. The Firm has more than 600 legal professionals throughout 14 offices, representing thousands of clients in various states, so it is foreseeable that representation of other Firm clients may be or become adverse to Hungary's interests from time to time.

With respect to our Firm's government relations practice, Hungary is aware that the Firm represents the interests of other persons and entities before various legislative and executive bodies, and administrative agencies at the local, state, and federal level. In addition, the Firm represents a broad spectrum of clients in many different industries in connection with a wide variety of matters. In addition, because of the Firm's size, and as Hungary might expect, the Firm has lawyers and non-lawyer lobbyists with many different views and philosophies. Some of the Firm's lawyers and non-lawyer lobbyists are from time to time involved with the political process for various candidates and causes, sometimes interests which in some cases, might be adverse to the interests Hungary seeks to promote through its engagement of the Firm. We do not believe that our representation of these other clients with points of view that differ from Hungary's will affect the Firm's ability to provide competent and diligent representation to any of our Firm's clients. Notwithstanding the above, our Firm will not represent other parties in a federal agency contracting or lobbying matter directly adverse to Hungary. For example, we would not and could not concurrently advocate contrary positions for two clients before the same body or agency on the same issue. However, from time to time it is possible that we may take positions on behalf of other clients that may indirectly impact Hungary's interests in matters in which we do not represent Hungary. Thus, as a condition of the Firm's undertaking this engagement, Hungary must agree to waive all legal, business, and political conflicts which exist or may arise as a result of the Firm's representation of Hungary and any other person or entity.

CERTIFICATES OF COMPLETION

B&T will include with each invoice a written status report of our work as of the date of each invoice. Such report will be reviewed by the Ambassador. If he is satisfied he will issue a certificate of completion to the Government of Hungary. The invoice will be paid to B&T within ten days of the issuance of the certificate. The Ambassador may ask for supplemental or corrective information prior to issuance of the certificate of completion. During the term of this Engagement, B&T and Hungary will conduct an active and continuous effort to achieve the objectives of this Engagement.

TERMINATION OF SERVICES

Our engagement will begin on November 7, 2018 and terminate on January 21, 2019, unless the Firm and Hungary should desire to extend the engagement in writing. Hungary may terminate this engagement earlier for any reason by providing the Firm with a thirty (30) day notice. The Firm may terminate this engagement for nonpayment of our fees and where we are required or permitted to do so by the Rules of Professional Conduct after giving Hungary reasonable notice and allowing time for the Embassy to engage successor counsel, if necessary.

Upon termination of this Agreement by either party, the Firm will be entitled (i) to retain all sums previously paid; (ii) to payment of all outstanding unpaid invoices for which a Certificate of Completion has been issued; and (iii) to payment of invoices for services pro-rated through the date of termination for which a Certificate of Completion has been issued.

CONCLUSION

If this letter accurately sets forth the engagement and Hungary's understanding, please so indicate in the space provided below and return a signed copy of this letter to me. We ask Hungary to acknowledge that, in reviewing and executing this letter, Hungary has not relied on any advice provided by the Firm, but instead has acted solely in reliance upon the advice of other counsel.

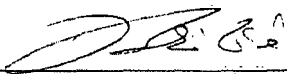

I look forward to working with you on this matter. If you have any questions, please call me.

Sincerely,
