WASHINGTON, Sept. 22, 2025 /PRNewswire/ -- CGTN America & CCTV UN releases "United as One World Voices of Peace" Concert Honors Historic Anniversary.

Renowned artists will take the stage at New York's iconic Lincoln Center on September 23 at 7 PM for the highly anticipated "United as One World Voices of Peace" Film Concert, an event honoring the 80th anniversary of the end of World War II and the founding of the United Nations. Presented by China Media Group (CMG), the concert promises an evening of extraordinary performances, blending music, film, and global messages of peace and unity.

The concert features internationally acclaimed piano virtuoso Lang Lang, violinist Randall Goosby, and vocalists Kameron Lopreore, Efraín Solís, and William Guanbo Su, alongside the New York International Symphony Orchestra and Choir, the United Nations Symphony Orchestra and United Nations Singers.

The concert pays tribute to the arduous yet significant history of the World Anti-Fascist War. It serves as a reminder of humanity's shared struggle against conflict and oppression, while also highlighting the enduring role of the United Nations in promoting peace, cooperation, and mutual understanding over the past eight decades.

By bringing together diplomats, UN officials, and world-renowned artists, the "United as One World Voices of Peace" Film Concert embodies the ideals of international solidarity and collaboration that the UN represents. The evening seeks not only to honor the achievements of the past but also to inspire future generations to uphold the values of dialogue, unity, and collective responsibility in building a more peaceful and cooperative world.

China Media Group recently launched a global call for AI film creations under the theme "Bright Future of Humanity." In its first phase, outstanding works were selected that creatively combine AI and creativity to convey the spirit of "Remembering History, Living in Peace," while envisioning a shared future for humanity. A curated collection of these works will also be screened during the event.

WASHINGTON, Sept. 22, 2025 /PRNewswire/ -- CGTN America & CCTV UN releases "Beauty in Harmony, Destiny in Unity" Visual Works Exhibition.

China Media Group presents "Beauty in Harmony, Destiny in Unity," a visual arts exhibition at the United Nations Headquarters on Tuesday, September 23, at 11:00 a.m., coinciding with the 2025 UN General Assembly. The exhibition marks the 80th anniversary of the United Nations and aims to reflect on the organization's founding vision. It also invites participants to consider how humanity can work collectively to build a global community with a shared future. Through visual storytelling, the exhibition seeks to highlight both the ideals that have guided the UN over eight decades and the continuing relevance of these principles in today's interconnected world.

Featuring a diverse collection of paintings and multimedia works, the exhibition traces the evolution and practice of the UN's core ideals. The exhibits spotlight tangible progress in key areas central to the 2030 Agenda for Sustainable Development, including poverty reduction, food security, green energy innovation, global health, and international peacekeeping. The display emphasizes not only global efforts but also China's contributions towards achieving these goals. Contributions from international artists and young creators further underscore the role of creativity, imagination, and hope in shaping sustainable and inclusive futures.

The exhibition is designed to foster dialogue among a broad audience, including diplomats, civil society representatives, artists, and youth. By linking policy objectives with human stories and creative expression, the event aims to spark meaningful conversations that can inspire collaboration and commitments. Through this intersection of art, culture, and global governance, "Beauty in Harmony, Destiny in Unity" seeks to encourage cross-cultural understanding, and accelerate collective progress towards the Sustainable Development Goals.
