Peng Liyuan, wife of Chinese President Xi Jinping, chatted over tea and visited a small handicrafts exhibition with Entissar El-Sisi, wife of Egyptian President Abdel Fattah El-Sisi, on Wednesday.

Peng had a cordial exchange with Entissar on China-Egypt friendship and people-to-people exchanges.

Egypt has a long history and a profound cultural heritage, Peng said, noting that the exquisite exhibits fully showcased the wisdom and unique aesthetic sensibilities of the Egyptian people.

China and Egypt share many cultural similarities, Peng said, expressing hope that artists from the two countries would strengthen exchanges and cooperation to allow traditional crafts to continue to shine with renewed vitality through inheritance and mutual learning.

Peng Liyuan, wife of Chinese President Xi Jinping, and Aigul Japarova, wife of Kyrgyz President Sadyr Japarov, visited the National Historical Museum of the Kyrgyz Republic on Monday. She also attended an event organized by Aigul Japarova, wife of Kyrgyz President Sadyr Japarov, on Tuesday morning for spouses of leaders attending the 2026 Shanghai Cooperation Organization (SCO) Summit.

WASHINGTON, Sept. 3, 2026 /PRNewswire-PRWeb/ -- (This material is distributed by MediaLinks TV, LLC on behalf of CCTV. Additional information is available at the Department of Justice, Washington, D.C.)

Peng and Japarova watched the welcome performance together before jointly visiting a traditional culture exhibition of Kyrgyzstan.

Peng said the costumes, carpets and other items on show, exquisitely crafted and richly colored, reflect the Kyrgyz people's long-standing handicraft traditions and unique customs.

Both China and Kyrgyzstan attach great importance to preserving and passing on traditional culture, she said, expressing the expectation that the two countries will continue to expand people-to-people and cultural exchanges and further enhance bonds between their peoples.

They also visited an art exhibition on ancient Chinese civilization organized by both sides and watched a Kyrgyz ethnic costume show, where they expressed a willingness to promote cultural exchanges and mutual learning between the two countries.

The National Historical Museum of the Kyrgyz Republic is Kyrgyzstan's highest-level national museum and houses a collection of artifacts that traces the history and development of the Kyrgyz people.

Peng Liyuan, wife of Chinese President Xi Jinping, attended an event organized by Aigul Japarova, wife of Kyrgyz President Sadyr Japarov, on Tuesday morning for spouses of leaders attending the 2026 Shanghai Cooperation Organization (SCO) Summit.

Upon arriving at the Ala-Archa State Residence, Peng was warmly greeted by Japarova. Peng and spouses of leaders from participating countries viewed an exhibition on the ethnic culture of Kyrgyzstan and posed for group photos before watching a stage performance at the Enesay Reception House.

Peng praised the performance as wonderful and commended the performers for their outstanding artistry. She invited Kyrgyz artists to visit China for more performances and cultural exchanges so as to give Chinese audiences a closer look at the country's rich ethnic culture.
