

Barzan Aeronautical LLC appoints new CEO

Barzan Aeronautical is pleased to announce that Mr. John Hardwick has been appointed as the Company's new Chief Executive Officer. Mr. Hardwick brings decades of commercial experience working with companies in the technology, aerospace and defense industries. In addition to his extensive industry knowledge and experience, as part of the minority community, Mr. Hardwick has a proven track record of building top-tier management teams that are the "gold standard" for diversity and inclusiveness, values that are as important to the Company as its commercial business. Mr. Hardwick is a graduate of Duke University and Boston College Law School.

As the Company continues to experience commercial success, Barzan also has added Mr. Gerald Straughn as the Chief Financial Officer. Mr. Richard Craven continues with Barzan supporting the Company's global operations.

For further information or inquiries, please contact Laura Ott, Director for Business and Government Affairs, at lott@barzanaero.com.

The information/material provided is distributed by Barzan Aeronautical LLC on behalf of Barzan Holdings QSTP. Additional information is available at the U.S. Department of Justice, Washington DC.