Such written notice may be (a) your notification to us of your termination of our representation, (b) our confirmation to you of the completion of our representation, or (c) our notification to you of our termination. If this Agreement or our services are terminated for any reason, such termination shall be effective only to terminate our services prospectively and all the other terms of this Agreement shall survive any such termination. Any remaining fees will be paid based upon the date of termination. All outstanding expenses will be paid by Client upon termination.

This obligation of confidentiality continues in perpetuity.

File Retention: All records and files will be retained and disposed of in compliance with our policy in effect from time to time. Subject to future changes, it is our current policy generally not to retain records relating to a matter for more than five (5) years. Upon your prior written request, we will return client records to you prior to their destruction. We recommend that you maintain your own files for reference or submit a written request for your client files promptly upon conclusion of a matter.

Modification: Waiver: No amendment of this Agreement will be effective unless it is in writing and signed by the parties. Any waiver by the Client of a condition or obligation of AF under this Agreement will not constitute a waiver of any other condition or obligation of AF.

Severability: If any provision of this Agreement is unenforceable to any extent, the remainder of this Agreement will not be affected by that unenforceability and that provision will remain enforceable to the fullest extent permitted by law.

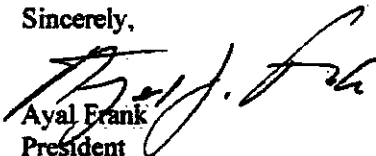

Force Majeure: If, by reason of any occurrence beyond the control of the Parties, either party is prevented from performing, in whole or in part, any obligation hereunder, that party shall be excused from performance of that obligation.
