for the best hotel in Aruba.

Visit Baby Beach: This half-moon lagoon has calm water that is perfect for the little ones to play in. There is also a restaurant and bar with plenty of shade to cool off in. Bathrooms are available for a small fee ($2).

Adventure at the Butterfly Farm: Experience the beauty of Aruba at the Butterfly Farm. You'll be able to explore the butterfly habitat and watch the beautiful creatures fly around the farm.

Swim at Eagle Beach: Eagle Beach is the #1 beach in the Caribbean and it's easy to see why. The white sand is pristine and the crystal-clear Caribbean sparkles in the Aruba sun.

Explore the San Nicolas Art Murals: Located on the southern end of Aruba in the town of San Nicolas, the San Nicolas Art Murals are the cultural capital of the island. This is a great cultural experience for kids of all ages.

Discover Mangal Halu: Mangal Halu is a secluded beach filled with mangroves, shallow waters, and rich sea life. Bring your tiny traveler for snorkeling, kayaking, stand up paddle boarding, and general exploration.

roamaroo Experiences > Things. We're partnering with @arubatourism to make the most out of our second summer with Scotland. The plan: make memories on the best beach in the Caribbean: Eagle Beach, Aruba 🇧🇼

If you're wondering if you should book that last minute summer vacation, this is your sign. With over 16 non-stop flights from the U.S., we highly recommend the island of Aruba. And because Aruba is located south of the Hurricane belt, summer and fall are the perfect time to visit this island.

The thought of 18 summers isn't meant to put pressure, but to serve as a gentle reminder that the to-do list can wait. When you look back on your life, what do you want to remember? It won't be the hours spent behind the computer or the commute to the office. You'll remember the time spent with your family...the quality time with your partner, the playful times with your kids, and the vacations you took together as a family.

They say you only have 18 summers with your kids...but if we keep having this much fun together, we have a feeling it will be a lot more 😊 roamaroo • It doesn't get any better than Aruba.

We're partnering with @arubatourism and the @ritzcarltonaruba - our home away from home for 4 glorious nights.

When we say that hands down, the Ritz Carlton Aruba is one of the best hotels for families on earth, we don't say that lightly.

Traveling as a family can be stressful. There are always questions like, "Did I pack enough diapers?" or "Did I pack enough sunscreen?" Being away from home with kids can be majorly jarring, even for the most seasoned of travelers. We can honestly say that we've never felt more seen, appreciated, and supported as a family while traveling than we did at the Ritz. They do all of the little things right - they provide swim diapers and sunscreen for kiddos, a welcome gift in the room, free food for kids 4 and under, and completely nail it on service (with kids and without).

In all honesty, a few years ago, we wouldn't have noticed the kids area because we would have been too caught up in the adults only section. And that's the secret sauce here. It's a resort that caters to both families AND couples without excluding either group. It's the perfect hotel to bring the whole family AND it's also an incredible choice if you want to leave the kiddos at home and enjoy a parents only trip. Hmmm.. maybe next time 🤔

- If you are a citizen of the US, Canada, EU and most of South America you can enter Aruba without a visa. Your passport only needs to be valid for the entirety of your stay.
- You must complete the Embarkation and Disembarkation Card (ED Card) online prior to your departure. It's free and takes less than 5 minutes to complete. The website is www.edcardaruba.aw.
- The official languages of Aruba are Papiamentu and Dutch but most Arubans speak a minimum of four languages including English and Spanish!
- The official currency is the Aruban Florin (AWG) but US dollars are accepted throughout the island as well as credit cards so there is no need to exchange US dollars and most prices for things on the island are listed in USD as well.
- Aruba sits outside of the hurricane belt so it's the perfect Caribbean getaway during summer months, has the most sunny days in the Caribbean and averages 80 degree year-round and stunning beaches like Palm Beach in this video, it's why I keep coming back!

Have you been to Aruba?

thetravelingchild Verified Where to stay in Aruba (SAVE + SHARE this post):

This is my 3rd visit to Aruba, thanks to @arubatourism for partnering with us and I highly recommend staying on Palm Beach. We stayed at the @hyattaruba this time which is right on the beach and great at Palm Beach has super calm water, perfect for families.

The Hyatt Regency has a family pool with a water slide, an adults only pool, lots of activities on site like cooking classes and cocktail making and a casino. There were also scavenger hunts during the day the girls enjoyed, bingo and a kids club.

There are 3 restaurants on site but it's also walking distance to plenty of others.

Let me know what you want to know about Aruba so I can include it in my next post about this trip!
