Subject: Babymoon - Rejuvenating & Romantic Offerings & Hotel Packages in the Caribbean

Hi [REDACTED],

According to BabyCenter.com the idea of a one last trip before welcoming the newest member of the family continues to increase in popularity among couples.

With variety of resorts offering specialty amenities and exclusive romantic experiences paired with award-winning beaches, Aruba naturally caters to couples aiming to plan a rejuvenating trip before their baby arrives, but there are a few activities worth mentioning.

With 80's, sunny, and dry the forecast year-round the One happy island is the ideal choice for any couple interested in celebrating their family's milestone with a tropical getaway, no matter what type of traveler they are.

Please find below a full list of hotel packages and island activities for the perfect babymoon getaway on the One happy island and a folder of images HERE (credit: Aruba Tourism Authority).

Does this fit any stories you're currently working on?.

Thanks,
