Cvijanović : RS Will Retain its Constitutional Powers – SRNA

February 17, 2020

RS President Željka Cvijanović on Saturday said she believes the RS will be able to keep its constitutional powers using political means.

“Republika Srpska wants to keep its constitutional powers ... and that is my message to the citizens of Srpska. We are succeeding in that, I am sure, through our institutions and their strength”, Cvijanović said in Belgrade.

In a joint statement to the press with the Serb member of the BiH Presidency Milorad Dodik, she has emphasized that Srpska would preserve its constitutional jurisdictions by invoking what are its values and its rights and that Srpska will be defended.

Cvijanović specified that Republika Srpska would do so by political methods and means.

Bosnian Croat parties support removing foreign judges from Constitutional Court – N1

BiH's Croat parties have urged representatives of the country's three constituent peoples to find a compromise to overcome the emerging political crisis and expressed support for the demand by Serb representatives to remove foreign judges from the Constitutional Court.

BiH's Croat National Assembly (HNS), an organisation of Croat parties, said in a statement, "It is time for Bosnia and Herzegovina to show political responsibility and democratic maturity and accept the Opinion of the European Commission on Bosnia's request for membership in the EU, which emphasises that Bosnia must, as part of its path toward the EU, reform its Constitutional Court, particularly regarding foreign judges."
