Tegeltija thanks Parliamentary Assembly members – SRNA

📅 January 12, 2021

BiH Council of Ministers Chairman Zoran Tegeltija on Monday thanked BiH Parliamentary Assembly deputies who rejected the opposition's motion for removal of the Council of Ministers.

Answering the questions asked by journalists, Tegeltija said that BiH was going through the most difficult stage in the EU accession process, which was much easier for some other countries, as they met some of the conditions after they became members, not after obtaining candidate status.

“Personally, I am of the opinion the EU should have had a greater degree of tolerance when it comes to BiH in the obtaining candidate status process,” Tegeltija said.
