Bihac mayor opposed to migrants being placed in centre financed by EU – HINA

January 14, 2021

Bihac Mayor Šuhret Fazlić on Wednesday told EU Ambassador Johann Sattler that he was opposed to migrants being placed in the Bira camp in his town. Fazlić said in a press release, “For three years Bihac has been part of the solution to the problems with the migrant crisis and we are prepared to actively participate in caring for migrants who do not have adequate shelter. However, Bira can in no circumstances be used as a migrant camp.”
