Security Minister: Conditions for migrants improving – N1

📅 January 26, 2021

BiH Security Minister Selmo Cikotic said Monday that BiH's migrant situation is much better now than it was several months ago and that living conditions in the Lipa migrant camp have improved greatly according to EU representatives and other organizations.

“The situation regarding the improvised Lipa camp is complex and we have different assessments, these are not standard conditions. EU representatives are astonished and surprised. They are happy with what they saw. Conditions in the tents are now acceptable in the sense that they are well insulated, have quality floors, sleeping bags, mattresses, heating, hygiene conditions exist, and food – they have three meals a day,” Said Cikotic in a conversation with N1's Sanela Dujkovic.
