US ambassador to BiH Presidency: US remains Bosnia's partner – N1

📅 February 5, 2021

U.S. Ambassador Eric Nelson met Thursday with the three members of the BiH Presidency to discuss cooperation between the two countries as well as BiH's European integration and political developments in the country.

The Presidency thanked the ambassador for the US contribution in stabilising the situation in BiH and for the support his country provided in process of Bosnia's European integration, according to the statement issued following the meeting.

Speaking of the country's European integration, the Presidency members, Sefik Dzaferovic, Milorad Dodik and Zeljko Komsic, expressed readiness towards the completion of 14 priorities outlined in the European Commission's Opinion on Bosnia's membership application.
