Višković: It would be best for Inzko to leave BiH – SRNA

📅 February 15, 2021

Republika Srpska Prime Minister Radovan Višković said that would be best for High Representative Valentin Inzko to leave BiH and that the people and nations living in BiH “should lead this country without high representatives.”

Višković said, “It would be best that Inzko leaves BiH. Regarding the announcement of some others that they should come, as long as we have high representatives in BiH, regardless of their name and where they come from, we do not have the state of BiH. We are under the protectorate of the international community and everywhere in the world, and everyone who has read any book on democracy knows that where you have high representatives, you do not have the state and statehood of one country as it should be.”
