EU's Ylva Johansson: Bosnia needs stronger migration management capacities – N1

📅 February 19, 2021

EU Home Affairs Commissioner Ylva Johansson said after meeting BiH ministers Friday that the migration problem will not go away and that, according to her new proposal, migrants will have to fill out asylum applications at the EU's external border.

Johansson said she recently presented the 'New Pact on Migration and Asylum' to the EU, calling it "a fresh start to find a compromise that all member states can agree on."

"Migration is something that has always been here and will always be here. Migration will not be over so we have to manage migration," she said.
