Petković: Imposition of laws would be a step back for BiH – SRNA

📅 February 22, 2021

Deputy Speaker of the Republika Srpska National Assembly Milan Petković said Monday that any imposition of laws by the international High Representative in BiH would mean a step back in establishing the normal functioning of BiH.

Commenting on the announcement of the High Representative for BiH Valentin Inzko about the possible use of the Bonn powers, Petković said that such unnecessary threats intensify the atmosphere of intolerance and conflict even more, and the High Representative, instead of doing that, should go in the direction of reconciliation and normal functioning of BiH.
