SNSD wins majority in Dobož and Srebrenica repeat election, watchdog says – N1

📅 February 22, 2021

The BiH Central Election Commission on Monday published its first preliminary results for repeat elections in Dobož and Srebrenica for the city and municipal council, which showed that the Alliance of Independent Social Democrats (SNSD) won the majority in both places.

After processing 81.13 percent of the votes, the SNSD received 11,673 votes in Dobož. The “Dobož in Our Heart” Coalition received 2,400 votes, while the “DS-DEMOS-PDS” won 2,143 votes. The Socialist Party received 1,500 votes, while the “SDP BiH-HS BiH” received 1,466 votes. The sixth is the DNS with 1,140 votes, while the seventh is the PDP with 1,098 votes, the Central Election Commission of BiH said.

The SNSD also won most of the votes in Srebrenica – 2,276. The “My Address: Srebrenica” coalition won 2,019 votes while the SDS got 1,033 votes in total.
