Čubrilović criticizes appointment of new High Representative – SRNA

📅 May 28, 2021

Republika Srpska National Assembly Speaker Nedeljko Čubrilović said that it would be better for the international community to make politicians in BiH more responsible for the situation in BiH instead of appointing a new high representative.

He has said that it would be good for the International Community to call on domestic politicians to work on adopting standards that would bring the country formally closer to the European Union.
