Dodik to Jerusalem Post: RS will respect everything written in the BiH Constitution

📅 January 13, 2022

The Jerusalem Post today published an interview in which BiH Presidency Member Milorad Dodik called for a “return to the BiH Constitution” and criticized the continued foreign administration of BiH and violations of the Constitution.

Dodik told the Post, “We want to return to the BiH Constitution, and we will respect everything written there.”

Asked whether reports that he is planning to separate Republika Srpska from BiH are “fake news,” Dodik said:

Of course it’s fake news. We plan to stay in our country, but in the way we signed in 1995 or in the one we would agree with the other two peoples in BiH. Our primary goal is peace and we will not sacrifice peace for any goal. The second goal is to live in a country where we will have the rights given to us by the BiH Constitution. The third goal is for the state to be legally regulated with an independent and impartial judiciary in accordance with the Constitution
