Croatian President: Dodik is our partner in Bosnia – HINA

📅 January 18, 2022

Croatian President Zoran Milanovic said Monday Milorad Dodik, the Serb member of the BiH Presidency, is a Croatian partner in BiH and that the problem of the Bosniaks outvoting the Croats cannot be solved without the Serbs.

Dodik “didn’t get his hands bloody in the war” and is “a legitimate representative of the Serb People and Republika Srpska in the state of Bosnia and Herzegovina, which we respect and will always respect,” he added.

“We don’t see that the Serb policy is causing problems for the Croats. Without the Serbs in Bosnia and Herzegovina, we won’t solve this problem if we care about solving it, and I do care. Some evidently don’t care enough,” Milanovic said, alluding to the demand of BiH Croats and Croatia that the BiH electoral law be changed to prevent the more numerous Bosniaks from outvoting the Croats in elections for the Croat member of the BiH Presidency and House of Peoples’ members.
