Turkey's Erdogan, Serbia's Vucic agree to broker Bosnia crisis talks – Reuters

📅 January 19, 2022

Turkish President Tayyip Erdogan said that he and Serbian President Aleksandar Vucic agreed Tuesday to broker crisis talks involving all parties in BiH after Serbia's April elections.

Vucic told the news conference that Serbia was committed to Bosnia as an intact state and that the preservation of peace and stability in the Balkans was paramount, along “with respect for differences”.
