

BiH Dayton Project

Croatian FM: EU must send strong message to those halting BiH's election reform – HINA

 January 25, 2022

Croatia's foreign minister, Gordan Grlic-Radman, said Monday that he told his counterparts that the EU must send a clear and strong message to those halting electoral reform in BiH.

"I said that it's necessary for the EU to send a strong, clear and unambiguous message to those who are halting electoral law changes and whom the status quo suits," Grlic-Radman said.

He reiterated that it's necessary to change the electoral law in order to eliminate all forms of discrimination in the election process and to enable the legitimate representation of the three constituent peoples in state bodies.

Read more here.

« RS average net wage up 3.2% in 2021 – SeeNews

RELATED POSTS

RS average net wage up 3.2% in 2021 – SeeNews

📅 January 25, 2022

Cvijanović: Dialogue in BiH essential – SRNA

📅 January 24, 2022

Dodik welcomes US support for projects in RS – N1

📅 January 21, 2022

BIH DAYTON PROJECT

This website is a resource for journalists, scholars, and policy makers in search of accurate and timely information about Bosnia and Herzegovina and its governmental bodies, entities, and constituent peoples.

This website presents materials representing a variety of viewpoints with respect to Bosnia and Herzegovina. This material is distributed by McGinnis Lochridge on behalf of Republika Srpska. Additional information is available at the Department of Justice, Washington, DC.

The materials on this website do not necessarily reflect the opinions or policies of the Government of Republika Srpska.

All Rights Reserved 2021.

Proudly powered by WordPress | Theme: Recent News by Candid Themes.