Covic, Plenkovic satisfied that Palmer and Eichhorst accepted Croat proposals – N1

📅 February 4, 2022

Croatian Prime Minister Andrej Plenkovic and the the leader of BiH's largest Croat political party (HDZ), Dragan Covic, met Thursday in Zagreb to discuss the Neum talks on the BiH electoral reform.

Plenkovic and Covic expressed satisfaction that “international representatives accepted the proposals of Croat representatives in BiH” and the position of Croatian government representatives as a sustainable model of stability and functionality that would strengthen key principles of the Dayton Accords and be in line with European values.
