Krišto in Davos: We need more support from the EU – FENA/N1

 January 19, 2023

The newly appointed Chairman of the BiH Council of Ministers, Borjana Krišto, said in her address at the World Economic Corum in Davos that BiH chooses cooperation and openness as a response to the global crisis.

She emphasized that the new convocation of the Council of Ministers, as Bosnia's government is officially called, will work on improving relations in the region and intensifying cooperation with the European Union.

“More than ever before, we are aware that we must focus on what unites us, and not on what divides us,” Kristo said, adding that Bosnia remains committed to the Berlin Process as a fundamental mechanism for the path to competitive and stable European societies.
