Minister: Bosnia steps up security measures, situation stable for now – HINA

📅 October 19, 2023

HINA reports:

Security has been stepped up in Bosnia and Herzegovina based on the assessment of an increased risk from terrorist attacks, Security Minister Nenad Nesic told the local media on Thursday.

He said that the current security situation in the country is good, but that precautionary measures are necessary due to the possible spillover of the crisis caused by the escalation of violence in the Middle East.
