Fresh Delay to EU Talks Leaves Many Bosnians Bitter – BIRN

 December 15, 2023

In an article about disappointment in BiH after EU leaders decision not to open accession negotiations with BiH, BIRN reports that RS President Milorad Dodik put the blame for the delay on the slow pace of adoption of reforms by Bosniak and Croat politicians.

“All the priorities that the EU set before BiH, which were directly under the jurisdiction of the ministries led by personnel from Republika Srpska, were successfully implemented,” he insisted.

“All negotiation and reconciliation processes led by the staff from Republika Srpska ended with an agreement,” Dodik added on X.

“This testifies to the true determination of Republika Srpska for BiH’s membership in the EU. Unfortunately, those who swear by the EU do not show that readiness but block the European path of Bosnia and Herzegovina,” he said.
