FM Konakovic “moderately optimistic” about European Council session and decision on Bosnia – FENA

📅 March 20, 2024

FENA reports:

If Bosnia and Herzegovina gets the green light to start the accession talks with the European Union on Thursday, we have the right to be truly proud because we have gone from being the country that lagged behind the most in the segment of European integration to becoming the country that went the fastest from the candidate status to the opening of negotiations, Foreign Minister Elmedin Konakovic told Fena news agency.
