RS Education Minister sends congratulations on Banja Luka madrasa's first generation of graduates – N1

📅 May 13, 2024

The Banja Luka madrasa Reis Ibrahim-ef. Maglajlic promoted its first generation of graduates on Monday.

Republika Srpska Education and Culture Minister Zeljka Stojicic sent her congratulations to the Director of the BiH Islamic Community, as well as the madrasa's teachers and students, saying:

Your dedication to the education of youth in the spirit of Islamic values and traditions is extremely important for the development of the community and the preservation of cultural identity. Your school's work contributes to the development of multiculturalism and tolerance in the RS, and this is key to building a society that respects diversity.
