Brnabić: Serbia committed to Dayton Peace Agreement and inviolability of RS – SRNA

📅 July 9, 2024

SRNA reports:

Speaker of the National Assembly of Serbia Ana Brnabić said today in Banja Luka that Serbia desires peace, stability, and cooperation, and appeals for full respect of the Dayton Peace Agreement, which means that BiH consists of two entities and three constituent peoples, and that Republika Srpska is inviolable and indisputable.

“Serbia respects the Dayton Peace Agreement. We also appeal for respect for the Serbian people and the acknowledgment of all their rights wherever they live. We oppose undermining the Dayton Agreement, especially questioning the jurisdictions of Republika Srpska,” Brnabić said at a solemn session of the Republika Srpska National Assembly.
