Croatia FM expects BiH to open EU entry talks soon – HINA

📅 July 23, 2024

HINA reports:

Croatian Foreign Minister Gordan Grlic Radman said on Tuesday he was confident Bosnia and Herzegovina would soon formally begin accession negotiations with the EU, which Zagreb strongly supports.

“I have received assurances that reforms are underway and that efforts are being made to reach an agreement and align positions, that progress is certain, and that we can expect the opening of accession negotiations,” he said in Mostar, southern Bosnia and Herzegovina after meeting with the leader of the HDZ BiH party, Dragan Covic.
