EU urges Bosnia to submit final Reform Agenda to secure first tranche of Growth Plan funds – N1

July 26, 2024

N1 reports:

The European Union has expressed concern over Bosnia and Herzegovina's failure to submit the final version of the Reform Agenda to the European Commission. This submission is a prerequisite for receiving the first tranche of the Growth Plan, valued at approximately 70 million euros.

“We urge the local authorities to submit the Reform Agenda without further delays to avoid missing this opportunity entirely,” the EU Delegation said.
