Serbia writes to UNSG over Becirovic's UNGA address – Tanjug

📅 September 26, 2024

Tanjug reports:

Serbia has written to the UN Secretary General and the UN General Assembly president in response to a speech by Bosnia and Herzegovina Presidency Chairman Denis Becirovic in the UNGA in which he has levelled a series of unfounded and malicious accusations against Serbia and the Serbs

* * *

Bosniak politicians in Bosnia and Herzegovina are accusing Serbia of making threats even though they themselves have been destroying the Dayton Agreement systematically, robbing Republika Srpska in recent years of around a hundred of its powers guaranteed under that agreement, the letter says. The letter also notes that Becirovic addressed the UNGA without a platform approved by the Bosnia and Herzegovina Presidency, violating the laws of his own country.
