Čović: Decision about chief negotiator with EU agreed upon – SRNA

 December 2, 2024

SRNA reports:

HDZ BiH President Dragan Čović stated after the meeting in Mostar that a decision had been agreed upon on the basis of which the chief negotiator with the EU would be appointed, together with two deputies.

He said that there were eight items on the agenda, and that it was also agreed that the law on the protection of personal data should be harmonized by Wednesday so that the Council of Ministers could adopt it by the end of the week.
