Important step: Bosnia Presidency approves Frontex agreement to strengthen EU border cooperation – N1

📅 May 12, 2025

N1 reports:

The Presidency of Bosnia and Herzegovina has unanimously approved the agreement with the European Border and Coast Guard Agency (Frontex) during its regular session on Monday, N1 has learned.

The agreement represents a major step in enhancing operational cooperation between EU member states and the competent authorities in Bosnia and Herzegovina, particularly in the area of migration management and the country's broader path toward European integration.
