Bosnia partners with EU to strengthen border security

 June 11, 2025

Reuters reports:

Bosnia and Herzegovina on Wednesday signed an agreement with the European Union providing for technical assistance and deployment of EU guards on its borders to control and prevent illegal migration and cross-border crime.

A statement from the office of Borjana Kristo, the chairwoman of Bosnia's Council of Ministers, said, "The signing today ... is an important step forward on the European path of Bosnia-Herzegovina which has thus fulfilled an EU condition and become a credible partner in securing the external borders of the EU."
