US Chargé d'Affaires to BiH leaders: Democracy requires courage and cooperation, not division – N1

📅 July 3, 2025

N1 reports:

At a reception marking the 249th anniversary of US independence, Chargé d'Affaires Daniel Koski addressed guests in Sarajevo with a message of shared values, cultural connection, and democratic responsibility.

The US, he stressed, remains a firm supporter of Bosnia and Herzegovina's sovereignty, territorial integrity, and multiethnic character. Washington, he said, is committed to backing the country's path toward democracy, prosperity, and security, but emphasised that such progress must be led from within.
