Covic welcomes U.S. policy shift toward Dodik as a “contribution to peace and a stable, European BiH” – Hina/N1

📅 November 3, 2025

Hina/N1 reports, “Bosnian Croat leader Dragan Covic has welcomed what he described as a ‘turning point’ in U.S. policy toward BiH, saying it could help stabilize relations and ensure long-term equality among the country’s three constituent peoples.”

Covic said the lifting of sanctions “is a contribution that allows us to find solutions for Bosnia and Herzegovina as a whole, our homeland, in peace, then we are on the right path to reach an agreement and leave the wounds and scars of the war behind us.”
