Leaders across Bosnia offer support after Tuzla retirement home tragedy – N1

📅 November 6, 2025

N1 reports, “Bosnia and Herzegovina is united in grief following the devastating fire that swept through the Tuzla retirement home.”

According to N1, Republika Srpska Prime Minister Savo Minic “expressed condolences and offered help to the people of Tuzla. ‘The Government of Republika Srpska stands ready to provide any form of assistance after this tragedy. We share the pain and are always prepared to help. My sincere condolences to the families of the deceased,’ Minic stated.”
